Invitation to Monash Doctoral Program Information Day

Dear Dr. I Nyoman Mahaendra Yasa, SE., M.Si.,

Monash University is hosting the Monash Doctoral Program Information Day in Jakarta, September 9. Potential PhD students will have the opportunity to discuss their research ideas with representatives from a number of faculties. Prospective students will gain tips on how to write a thesis proposal, the best way to approach potential supervisors, and funding bodies will be present on scholarship opportunities. As such, we would cordially invite you and your colleagues to this event, which will be held on:

Date: Saturday, 9 September 2017

Time: 10.00 am – 6.00 pm

Venue: Function Room, 3rd Floor, Fairmont Hotel, Jl. Asia Afrika No.8, Senayan-Jakarta

Staff from the following faculties will be available to discuss admission processes and study opportunities:

- Arts and Social Science
- Business and Economics
- Education
- Engineering
- Information Technology
- Law
- Medicine, Nursing and Health Sciences
- Science
- Monash University Malaysia campus

I would be grateful if you could pass this information to potential PhD students whom you think would be interested in attending this event. Further information is available at www.monash.edu/phd-day.

If you or a colleague wishes to participate please confirm your attendance before the 28th of August by completing the online registration form on the webpage www.monash.edu/phd-day.

Yours sincerely,

Joe De Pasquale
